MERCER'S 50 YARD RUN BEATS PLUCKY CORNELL

Blocked Kick Causes Safety and Shutout Is Averted-Score, 7 to 2.

PHILAPELPHIA, Nov. 28 .- The annual football tussle between Penn and Cornell fought this afternoon on a field which had been made slippery by the snowfall, and Penn wen by a narrow margin. The score was 7 to 2 in favor of the Quaker team and the points scored under the new regime at Ithaca. Sharpe as head coach, the Corne knew and played more football. undamentals and general football than my Cornell eleven that has come down o Franklin Field in a long term of It was an entirely creditable gam eaten, there was every evidence that they are on their way to better things.

The Cornell tally was the result of a blocked kick. J. S. Whyte of Cornell broke through violently, Minds's punt boomed against his chest and the ball went bouncing back over the Penn goal.

Minds heat the pursuing Cornell man to be fell on it for a safety and thereby went bouncing back over the Penn goal. Minds beat the pursuing Cornell man to the field, otherwise Marshall would for the field, otherwise Marshall for the field to make the distance Marshall for the field to mak almost continuous series of forward pass being successful. On ploth sides all was robot by cornell. This series own toring and depth of the hour the simple forward pass being successful. On ploth sides all were either uncompleted to mitter-pixed. Both teams were alse to mitter-pixed. Both teams were alse to pass the state of the pass that hall Mercer stipped, and off five varies on a false forward pass being successful. On ploth sides all were either uncompleted the pass that hall Mercer stipped, and off five varies on a false forward pass the product of five varies of five varies on a false forward pass the rest of five and so on a false forward pass the rest of five varies of five vari

O'Hearn's fierce tackle made Mar fumble, but he recovered. O'Co stopped Mercer for a scant two yard and Harrington fumbled in the next is Butler pounced on the leather. O'He tried a sweeping end several control of the control tried a sweeping end run, but alth Mercer didn't get hold of him he did ceed in checking him and the run yielded no profit. Fritz made five yards on a de-layed pass, and thereupon Butler punted

Harrington, between them, managed to make seven yards on three rushes through the Cornell wings. Punts were exchange the Cornell wings. Funts were exchanged, with Cornell gaining, and Mercer and Harrington made eight yards from kick formation before Cornell stopped the advance. Holding cost Penn fifteen yards, but Cornell lost five for being offside. Penn was forced to kick, and when Fritz muffed on Cornell's 44 yard line Mercer following the health. Fritz was hust by the but Cornell lost five for being offside. Penn was forced to kick, and when Fritz muffed on Cornell's 44 yard line Mercer fell on the ball. Fritz was hurt by the tackle, which caused him to drop the ball after he had recovered his first fumble.

Mercer made a detour and turned left when tackled and Butler nipped it. A long punt by Butler rolled over the line for a touchback. From the 20 yard line Minds shot through Cornell's right wind a forward pass, and a long one it was, but Fritz intercepted it.

When Butler punted Eyrich's beautiful tackle spilled Marshall on Fenn's 20 yard lackle spilled Marshall on Fenn's drop kick for goal, but the drive was short. This was the only field goal tried during the fracas. From Cornell's 20 a stiff attack from this point, O'Connor and Hill punching the line for clean gains of from four to six yards. Near their own goal line the Quaker men railled and when Butler essayed a forward vastly superior. Eyrich and O'Hearn, the pass the pass was intercepted and the was Peun's on the 15 yard line. Is punted to Butler at the centre of him for a loss. When Butler returned him for a loss. When Butler returned Minds's punt the ball struck on Penn's loyard line and took a lucky bound for Penn. It bounced high and not at a normal angle backward toward the middle of the field, otherwise Marshall would be for prestige in football at linaca. Penn had a piucky team that played all the football to know and played it well.

Title Hillerip .
Pennsylvania. Positions.	Cornell
Young Left end	Eyr
Wilson Left tackie
Journess Left guard	Mun
Journeay Left guard	J. S. Why
Greene Right guard	Champai
Dillon Right tackle.	. Na
Jourdet Elgnt end	O'Hea
Marshall Quarterback	Ent.
Minds Left halfback	O'Cont
Harrington Right haifback	Fr
Mercer Pullback	H
Score-Penn, 7: Cornell, 2.	Touchdown
Mercer. Goal from touchdown-	Minds, Safety
Minds Substitutes Cornell-1	Rees for Evric
Lahr for Guyer, Weldenthal

Penn's goal line. com their 20 yard line Mercer and Sound Game Played Speaks Strongly for Sharpe's Coaching.

By RIGHT WING.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—Beaten by Pennsylvania because of loose handling of the ball. Cornell demonstrated on Frank lin Field to-day that it had a cr well coached, fighting team that when Butler punted Eyrich's beautiful tackle spilled Marshail on Penn's 35 yard line. Holding set Penn back fifteen more yards and Minds lost no time punting in factures of the game that cannot be midfield. Cornell couldn't gain, was penalized fifteen yards for holding and Butler hooted to Penn's 25 yard line. O'Connor wrecked Penn's forward pass and Irom had worked the ball five yards forward pass and Irom had worked the ball five yards forward when Minds tried a punt. J. S. Whyte aurged through, blocked the kick squared when the rushing game both teams were published and so far Cornell partisans were jubilant and so far Cornell partisans were jubilant and so far Cornell was from the 27 yard line Minds punted and from the 27 yard line Minds punted to turn in. O'Hearn was thrown for a loss by Slimpson. Butler punted and Minds had been and minds was about to turn in. O'Hearn was thrown for a loss by Slimpson. Butler punted and Minds had been and minds had been and minds and were so was the sum of the first quarter and run and Mercer's fine tackle haited him as he was about to turn in. O'Hearn was thrown for a loss by Slimpson. Butler punted and Minds had been to score, and these were paired by the silper processed.

The Quaker scendary was sone for the poor had been counted and him winging around left end for seven yards and from the 27 yard line Minds punted back haited him as he was about to turn in. O'Hearn was thrown for a loss by Slimpson. Butler punted and Minds punted back and Cornell gained and Minds which their credit that they was a counter scendary was sone in the last they can be a close of the game Cornell was performed out, it was a heavier team. Craig was the star specifor and, as it turned out, it was a heavier team. Craig was the star specifor and, as it turned out, it was superior and, as it turned out, it was chouted the damage and the damage and the damage and the damage and the first partial stages and the damage and the first partial stages and the damage and the first partial stages and th was on Cornell's 18 yard line. Following a punt Penn was able with two rushes to have the ball in her own possession in Cornell territory.

A little strategy in the way of a forward pass was tried by Penn, but Jourdet muffed Minds's heave. Marshall stepped back to the 40 yard line and tried a drop kick for goal, but the drive was deadly were the ends down the field that short. This was the only field goal tried. The Penn Captain Pounces on Muffed Ball and Sprints All Way to Goal.

LOSERS MANAGE TO SCORE

LOSERS MANAGE TO SCORE

Method Each School Connected to the play and streamed through and toppled Guyer for a loss.

The resolute O'Connor, however, recled off eight yards from a delayed pass, the penn players being drawn over to the other side. Hill made a first down and Butler spun a splendid kick past the Penn back field to Penn's 10 yard line, where back field to Penn's 10 yard line, where had squeezed the ball under him.

Butto the dash and spirit after the Penn much dash and spirit after the Penn and squeezed the ball under him.

Butter scampered back with a punt of and sound, even football at that. The Penn's 30 yard line, dodging and sliding twenty-five yards. Cornell let loose with none of the uncertainty and hesitation as stiff attack from this pole. O'Connect that have marked Cornell football in recent years. From end to end the Ithaca and in the wing positions Cornell was vastly superior. Eyrich and O'Hearn, the latter especially, were hard and deadly tacklers and were seldom to be fooled by shifty Quaker plays. The Cornell for interest. It is also become more than the part of the pass was interested and the part of the pass was interested and the pass was interested

The fourth period began with a punt by Minda to Fritz. From scrimmage Fritz reded off eleven yards on a double pass. On a fake kick Jourdet collared him for a loss. When Butler returned coaching system and for the men than a punt in pla

Minds. Substitute Minds. Substitute Minds. Substitute Minds. Substitute Minds. Substitute Minds CORNELL BACK ON THE MAP. 5 yard line. Line plunges were tried twice without success. Nesbitt then, on a quarterback rush through centre, carried the ball over for a touchdown, Court

kickir	ng the	goal.
	lineu
Gillies		Pe	eft end			CIL
Living	ston	Let	t tack	le	Wa	shing
Viebie		Let	entre.		N	ordstr
Newm	an	Rig	ht gua	rd		. Karl
Malef	sky	Rigi	oht tack	ie		Rear
Nesbit		Qua	rterba	ck		Bri
Nolan		Left	halfba	ick		Cudm
Court	STATE OF STREET	Righ	illback	aca.	*	Adler
Scot	re Bush	wick. 7	Bay	Ridge	. 3.	Tou
		Goal
		d-D. K

BROWN SMOTHERED BY FIERCE INDIAN RUSHES

Thorpe and Assistants Present Victims With Their Worst Beating in Years.

HARSH WORDS ARE 32 TO 0

Big Chief of Carlisle Tribe Is Entire Show, as Usual; He Does Everything.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 28 .- Carlisle defeated Brown on Andrews Field to-day, 32 to 0. The defeat was the worst that the Brown team has received in several years. Thorpe, the great Indian halfback, figured in all the scoring, making three of the touchdowns and kicking two goals It was Thorpe's spectacular runs, which is made repeatedly, that took the half detected holding by Cornell, and it was Penn's ball on Penn's 45 yard line. The holding took place while the kick was in transit and was a costly infraction of the rules for Cornell.

The game proves that Cornell is back once more on the football map and the men from Cayuga have only to go on learning the game under the clever teaching the game under the clever teaching the game under the clever teaching another in all period, the Indians making another in the cornell is back once more on the football map and the goal. The last score was made in the game under the clever teaching another in the cornell is back once more on the football map and the goal. The last score was made in the goal.

	The lineup: Cartisle.
	Cartisle.	Positions.	Brown.
	Large	Left end	Andrews
	Guyon	Left tackle	Murphy
	11111	Left guard	Goldberg
		Centre	Staff
	Bush	Right guard	Gottstein
	Calac	Right tackie	Kratz
	Williams.	Bight end	Ashbaugh
	Arcasa	Quarterback	Crowther
	Thorpe	Left halfback	Tenney
	Goesback 1
	Score-Carilsle.
	Thorpe, 3: Guyon	Wheelook Go	ale from touch-
		Substitutes	Carlisle: Powell
1	for Hill, Wheeloo	de for Goeshack	Brown Bart lett for Kratz, K
	Gottstein, Kulp	for Staff Waln	for Goldberg
	Wade for Murphy	Wurnhy for 1	Vade Langdon
	for Andrews, Mel.	ean for Crowthe	- Crowther for
	McLean, Metcalf	ean for Crowthe	to for Henry
	McLean, Metcair	for Beat, Haz	ett for Henry.
	Referee - Thompse	on or reordero.	wn. cmpire

1	alumni.
1	The lineup:
1	Hamilton. Positions. Alumni. Sonneborne Left end Priend
1	Sonneborne Left end Priend
	Bach Left tackle
	Thompson Left guard Spellman
1	Stewart Centre Hort
1	Fields Right guard Hodges
1	Cunningham Right tackle Allen
1	Brophy Right end Farserouth
1	Davis Quarterback Kelly
1	Harris Left halfback Borgman
d	Reed Right halfback Alteri
1	GregoryFullbackKirk
١	Score-Hamilton, 20; Alumni, 14. Touchdowns
1	- Harris, 2; Davis, Kirk, Borgman. Goals from 1
,	touchdown Davis, 2: Kirk, 2. Substitutes -
7	Murnane for Reed, Reed for Sonneborne. Referee
- 1	Phil King, Princeton, Umpire Smith, Cornell.
ì	Linesman-Shaw, Hobart. Time of periods-10

England Scores Twice at Nets. Special Cable Despatch to TER SUN. the Davis cup to-day Parke of England defeated Brookes of Australia. 8-Fig. 6—2. Dixon of England defeated Heath of Australia, 5—7, 6—4, 6—4, 6—4 The match is for the best three in five.

Intercity Soccer Goes Over. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 28 .- The inter city soccer games scheduled here to-day between West Hudson of Newark and Victors of this city and Jersey City and Hibernians were postponed owing to in FOOTBALL RESULTS.

Pennsylvania, 7; Cornell, 2.
Carlisle, 32; Brown, 0.
Washington and Jefferson, 22; Bucknell, 7
Lafayette, 19; Dickinson, 12.
Georgetown, 24; Virginia Poly, 3.
Lehigh, 29; Franklin and Marshall, 0.
Navy, Fourth Class, 16; Williamson, 7.
University of Virginia, 66; Carolina, 0.
Washington and Lee, 18; North Carolina
sgies, 6. Aggles, 6. Muhlenberg, 10; Ursinus, 6. Reserve, 24; Case 13.

Reserve, 24; Case 13.
Penn State, 33; Pittsburg, 0.
Holy Cross, 24; St. Louis University, 15.
U. of R., 7; Gettysburg, 0.
Wincome, 10; Winton, 7.
P. M. C., 7; Maryland Agr. College, 0.
Miami, 21; University of Cincinnati, 21.
Vanderbilt, 16; Sewance, 0.
Texas, 48; Arkansas, 0.
Wittenberg, 15; Otterbein, 7.
Christian Brothers, St. Louis, 9; Haske ns, 6.
Tre Dame, 69; Marquette, 0.
Joseph, 10; Georgetown F., 6.
ginia M. T., 21; Johns Hopkins, 0. mford H. S., 28; Passaic H. S., 0.
tral H. S., Newark, 16; East Sid

S. 0.
Comercial H. S., 5; Brooklyn Prep. 0.
Bushwick H. S., 7; Bay Ridge H. S., 0.
Cast Orange H. S., 6; Barringer, 3.
Hamilton Institute, 20; Alumni, 14.
Crasmus Hall-Poly Prep, postponed.
Manual-Boys High, postponed.
Commerce De Witt Clinton, postponed. ligh, postponed.
Witt Clinton, postponed.

MIDSHIPMEN GET SENDOFF.

Squad Departs for Philadelphia Amid Confident Cheers.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 28.—With the loyal shouts of their fellow students ringing in their cars the football squad of the ing in their cars the football squad of the Naval Academy, with a party of coaches, attendants and others, started for Phila-delphia this morning. The whole brigade of midshipmen followed the team to the of midshipmen followed the team to the main gate and gave a sendoff that showed its loyalty and confidence. While those who have followed both teams closely are not sanguine of a Navy victory Saturday, there is no doubt among the brigade of midshipmen. The big scores against the last two opponents and the improvement during practice during the last fow days. have convinced every midshipman that another triumph is to be added to the Navy string.

The Navy is counting on two factors to win this year's game—its heavy and experienced line and its relays of backs, by which it can maintain a fact page from which it can maintain a fast pace from the beginning of the game to the end. The line will be considerably heavier than that of the Army and in most places the Navy will have the advantage of ex-perience. There are plenty of good sub-stitutes for each position, but the regulars all are in good shape and should be able to play as long as needed, barring ac-

Back of the line a special effort has

CRISES; COMMERCIAL WINS

Losers Often Within Sight of tre, Van Camp, lost fifty yards. Twice in the second quarter the Prep was on Commercial's 20 yard line and failed to make their distance. On the fourth down in each case McKenna tried to drop kick, but was blocked both times.

The third quarter was the Prep's Water
Tipker was at the Waldorf-Astoria

further ceremony hung up the receiver. Although Herrmann waited all day for a personal talk with the Cubs' owner who ran thirty-five yards and made a touchdown. The try at goal failed. Soon after this Lafayette had the ball on Dickinson's 5 yard line on the second period.

Dunn made a forward pass to Pauxtia, who ran thirty-five yards and made a touchdown. The try at goal failed. Soon after this Lafayette had the ball on Dickinson's 5 yard line on the second period.

	yard line. The lineup:
	Commercial. Positions. Brooklyn Prep. Du Temple. Left end. Keller Lucke. Left tackle. McKenn.	¢
	G. ossman Left gua d McGran Van Camp Centre McNaib Rabinowitz Right guard McCullouci	0
	Glatzmeyer Right tackle Hein Adams Right end Ennis	2 5
2	Onley Left halfback Goggli Clayton Right halfback Mooney O'Shaunessy Pullback De Ghe	n
	Score—Commercial, 8; Brooklyn Prep. 0. Touch-down—Purgonie. Safety—Commercial. Sub down, 24 to 3, this afternoon at the hands of the South Atlantic champions, the Georgetown University team. Playing on a field which made speed impossible, the visitors fought hard all the way, but the superior formations and experience of Georgetown.	Positions.	Virginia Poly.

Bergen	Left end	McGtll
Hegarty	Left tackle	Burress
Mullaney	Left guard	Moore
		Evans
		···· Pick
		M. Whitehead
		Huddle
		Rogers
Kelly	Left halfback	Hodgson
Furey	Right halfback	Legge
		Yawter
Score-George	town, 24; Virgin	la Poly, 3. Touchdowns-Dunn, 2;	Bergen. Goals	from touchdowns
		ello, Legge. Sub-
		or Riten, Hiskell
		. Martin for Cam-
pazzi. Foley for	Furey, Furey	for Foley, Foley
		Pick, Hughes for
		ylor for McCann,
		Hodgson, Parrish
for lawter, Saun	ders for Parris	n. Referee-Gass.
Lenign. Cmpire	Thunder, Pen	nsylvania. Lines- riers—15 minutes.
man-Land, Nav	y. Time of qua	riers -15 minutes.

MUHLENBERG HUMBLES RIVALS. Vreeland by Toe and Brawn Rolls Up Ten Points.

of line plunges and forward passes by over. either side, neither team, however, being able to score. In the final quarter Vree land scored a touchdown and goal. The lineup:

	Ursinus. Positions. Muhlenberg.
	Hitterburg Right end
11	GingrichRight tackleCopi MinnichRight guardRoderi
••	Frickson Centre Fether
	Gormley Left guard Ka
	Yohe Left tackle Flexi
	Seaman Left end Hubba
	Vannada Ouartarhack Delen
	Wall Right halfback Vreela
	North Left halfback Huo
	Kichline Fuliback Ske
	Score Muhlenberg, 10; Ursinus, 0, Touc down-Vreeland. Goals from touchdown Vre- land. Goal from placement Vreeland. Subs tutes-Ursinus, Wallman for Seaman, Light f
	North: Muhlenberg, Ritter for Roderick, Sormul for Flexer, Brennen for Skean. Referee - We mouth, Yale, Umpire-Bennett, Pennsylvani Linemen Bryon, Lalayotte.
-

HERRMANN AND MURPHY IN BIG BASEBALL ROW

Reds' Owner Says Cubs' Owner Has Broken Faith in Tinker Deal.

TERMS OF DEAL CANCELLED

Agreement Reached Wednesday Night, but Windy City Man Runs Out.

About the angriest man in town yes-

erday was August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati ball club. Herrmann, who has been trying to clinch a deal for the services of Joe Tinker of the Chicago Cubs to manage the Reds next year, declared before he left here last night for Indianapolis to attend the fu-Back of the line a special effort has been made to develop as many dependable men as possible. It is recognized that the Navy has no remarkable ground gainer this year, but it has a large number of players of average ability or a little better. As many of these as possible have been used in regular games this year and coached so that they will fit into the offensive plays readily. Fresh backs will be sent in as soon as it is seen that either fatigue or accident is causing any player to lag. For Harrison or McReavey, the line plungers, Falling or Ingram will be substituted, while if Leonard is not in shape for his end running Nicholis, Alexander or Cook will get a try. the terms and that Murphy, after con-sulting with Evers, announced that Tinker could go to the Reds in exchange Tinker could go of the first and the first and Detroit Americans and Mike Mitcheil and Detroit Americans and Mike Mitcheil and Phelan of the Reds. According to Herrmann. Murphy agreed to pass up Grant and Knisely of the Reds, who were originally included in the deal, while Herrmann guaranteed that he would effect a deal with Detroit for the passing of Corridon out of the American League.

Lafayette runner, but the play was not allowed because there had been holding somewhere in the line. The playing was throughout, and Dickinson this afternoon on March Field, 19 to 13. This score, however, does not represent Lafayette's actual ground gaining or her superiority, for twice the goal line was crossed by a Lafayette runner, but the play was not allowed because there had been holding somewhere in the line. The playing was throughout, and Dickinson this afternoon on March Field, 19 to 13. This score, however, does not represent Lafayette's actual ground gaining or her superiority, for twice the goal line was crossed by a Lafayette runner, but the play was not allowed because there had been holding somewhere in the line.

to sign papers that would formally clinch the transfer of the players named. Herr-mann was at the Waldorf-Astoria on mann was at the Waldorf-Astoria on time, but Murphy did not appear. Instead he called Herrmann on a telephone from the Holland House and declared bluntly that he had called everything off. Herrmann, hot under the ball on the Prep's 25 yard line, but Murphy simply replied that there was nothing doing. Herrmann, over the ball on the Prep's 25 yard line, but three bad passes in succession by the centre, Van Camp, lost fifty yards. Twice in the second quarter the Prep was on the second prepared the the the the the date of the called Herrmann on a triple the the the had declared bluntly that he had the had called Herrmann on a triple the the the latter was nothing did not the profits were many good runs and the called Herrmann on a triple the the the latter was nothing the the the latter without the second profit t for the fourth score, Wheelock making in the touchdown and Thorpe kicking the goal. The last score was made in the final period, the Indians making another successful forward pass, and Thorpe went over for the score.

The lineup:

Carlisle Positions Brown.

Large Left end Andrews Guyon Left tackle Murphy Large Left end Goldberg Garlow Centre Staff Bush Bight guard Gottstein Bush Bight guard Gottstein Calac Right ackle Kratz Williams Right end. Ashbaugh Arcasa Quarterback. Crowther Thorpe Left halfback Tenney in full pass of the fourth gurden and the fourth guard start was the Prep's Water-too. Cavanaugh, the Prep's centre, passed the bull over Grace's head. It rolled over the goal line and Grace picked it up, but the ball over Grace's head. It rolled over the goal line and Grace picked it up, but the ball over Grace's head. It rolled over the goal line and Grace picked it up, but the ball was put in play on the 20 yard line. On the third on the Chicago club's payroll next season. Murphy asked Tinker to sign a contract for 1913 then and there, and Tinker, losing his temper, told Murphy without mincing words that he would never play another game of ball in a cover the goal line. He failed to kick the goal. During the fourth quarter the Prep's water-tup. Tinker was at the Waldorf-Astoria and was asked to come down to Murphy's hotel. According to Ricker, Murphy told him that Evers had decided to keep him on the Chicago club's payroll next season. Murphy asked Tinker to sign a contract for 1913 then and there, and Tinker, losing his temper, told Murphy without mincing words that he would never play another game of ball in a Chicago uniform. Tinker also charged Murphy with breaking his agreement made Wednesday night and safil that the terms of the ball. Du Temple the picked it up and ran to the 10 yard line. On the third was asked to come down to Murphy he hotel. According to keep him on the Chicago club's payroll next season. Murphy asked Tinker to sign and was asked to come down to Murphy the hotel. According to ke brought the ball to Commercial's 10 yard line, but then failed to make the distance. In the last minutes of play Lucke picked up a fumble and started for the Commercial goal line. Joyce started off ten yards behind him and caught him on the syard line.

The lineup:

Weenessay hight and said that the terms again there was holding and the was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the next see that Lafayette carried the ball over the concede. Tinker, still was not permitted. In the was not p abruptness after again declaring that if got a touchdown in the last period, J. he couldn't manage the Cincinnati team next year he would retire from professional baseball.

Was kicked, and the game ended with sional baseball. Herrmann, it is reported, was one of the Lafayette having the ball on Dickinson's men willing to accept an apology urphy for his part in the Fogel > day's meeting. Herrmann was charges against the Cubs' owner so that the litter could be placed on trial a la Fogel. But the Cincinnati magnate, who and conservative pleaded f lay. Under the present circumstances, therefore, it will not be surprising if Herrmann takes a hand in a movement to hale Murphy before the leasue meeting here on December 10 to answer to charges that may be brought against him by the Cincinnati club. Herrmann says he can prove by Tinker that Murphy positively tribute to Georgetown's Victory. | agreed to the terms of the deal which was called off by the Cubs' owner yesterday The Cincinnati man believes that Murphy has trifled with him long enough and that Reds, although Chance is on record as opposed to being identified with baseball in Cincinnati. Tinker's reason for not car-ing to play with the Cubs again is a perconclinated in the Cubs again is a personal one. He and Evers have been bitter enemies for several years. Although they have played side by side in the Cubs' infield it is a fact that they have not spoken more than a word now and then away from the ball parks. Tinker says that without Chance the Cubs will be wrecked under the Murphy-Evers regime and that he wants to get out in time. He also declares that after Evers had been appointed manager of the Cubs the latter never went near Chance and also failed to say good-by when the Peerless Leader left the Windy City for the coast last ress.

>
> The opinion that the source was Virginia Military feats. The score was Virginia feats. The score was Virginia feats. The scor

Tinker is a trouble maker and that Murphy failed to appoint Joe manager of the Cubs for that reason. Tinker left for his home last night, while Murphy went to Indianapolis, but not on the same train with the trate Herrmann and other base-

Murphy had nothing to say for publication except that he had called the Tinker deal off for reasons best known to him-

HOLY CROSS IN A HARD FIGHT.

St. Louis U. Defeated in a Game Where Luck Played a Part. St. Louis, Nov. 28.—The Holy Cross eleven of Worcester defeated the St.

Louis University this afternoon in rough and hard fought battle. The sec ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 28.—This afternoon on Muhlenberg Field the Muhlenberg eleven gave their old rivals, Ursinus the kind of plays that are referred to as the kind of plays that are referred to as berg eleven gave their old rivals, Ursinus College, a shutout by the score of 10 to 0. Both teams started out strong, each line holding splendidly. The forward pass was tried time and time again by Ursinus with no results. Toward the latter part of the first quarter both teams were penalized several times for holding.

In the second quarter Ursinus played loose ball and allowed Muhlenberg to get within twenty-five yards of the goal line, where Vreeland on a placement kick booted one over, scoring three points for remaining points came through kicks booted one over, scoring three points for remaining points came through kicks Muhlenberg. The third quarter was one from the field, each team putting one

1	The street of
1	St. Louis. Snyder	Pesitions.	Holy C
1	Snyder	Left end	McC
ł	Stadtherr	eft tackle	Ostera
1	Schlesmer	Left guard	Ci
Ì	Fish	Centre	Brav
i	PowellB
i	McCarthy R
į	Histner	aget end	Mete
À	McGulreQ	uarterback	Mu
1	Zachritz Le	H Ballback	O B
1	Ratican Ris	gat namoack	Lione
ı
1	Score Holy Cross
1	Touchdowns O'Brid

way. Goals from touchdowns—Ostergren a. Goals from field—Ostergren, Ratican. Substitutes—Hoty Cross—Milliken for Carmody, Brawley for Demarco, Lee for O'Brien. St. Louis—Snedeck for E. Stadtherr, Carroll for Maguire, Maguire for Cagroll, McCartny for Schloemar, Schloemer for Snedeck, Cassaway for Zachritz, Referre—W. C. Connett, Virginia. Umpire—J. C. Knight, Michigan. Linesman—Waiter Krause, Washington. Time of periods—15 minutes.

BUCKNELL SCORES ONCE.

Fumble by Washington and Jefferson Saves a Shutout.

Washington, Pa., Nov. 28.—Washington and Jefferson in its final game of the season this afternoon defeated Bucknell University by a score of 22 to 7. The only score made by Bucknell, a touchdown in the fourth period, was made possible through a fumbic of a punt by Washington and Jefferson, Cruikshank of Bucknell recovering the ball and getting away for the touchdown. In the other three periods of the game and in fact in the greater part of the final quarter Bucknell was clearly outplayed.

early outplayed. The lineup: The lineup:

W. & J. Positions. Bucknell.

Kantmann. Left end. Jordan
J. Schwab Left tackle. Hera
Patterson. Left guard. Teamer
B. Crulishiank. Centre. Schafner
W. Youngings. Bignt guard. Richardson
Wesbecher. Right tackle. Dunkle
Alexander. Uight end. Surgis
Goodwin. Quarterback. F. Crulishiank
Fleming. Left haifback. Kiser
Cornwell. Right baifback. Gdnalo
Young. Fullback. Topham.
Score—Washington and Jefferson. 22; Bucknell.
T. Touchdowns—Young. 2. Kaufmann. Kicked grals from touchdown—Fleming. 2. Safety—
Topham. Falled at goal from field—Topham.
Substitutes—W. and J.—Pierce for Wesbecher.
Mckean for Patterson, Pierce for Mekean, Wesbecher for Pierce, Moser for Goodwin, Gettemy for Kaufmann. Bucknell—Reding for Richardson, Aleshouse for Gdnale, Gdnale for Aleshouse. Referee—S. B. Newton, University of Pennsylvania. Umpire—Langford. Trinity.
Linesman—Ewing Rafferty, Princeton. Time of periods—15 minutes. W. & J. Kaufmann J. Schwab.

LAFAYETTE TOUCHDOWN IN LAST PERIOD WINS

Holding in Line Twice Deprives Victors of Touchdowns in spectacular throughout, and Dickinson was on the defensive most of the time. Lafayette gained a total of 288 yards, while Dickinson made 126. Lafayette made eighteen first downs and Dickinson down, when there was a fumble, and Pauxtis getting the ball ran ninety-five yards for a touchdown. He kicked a goal. Lafayette then rushed the ball to the 35 yard line, when a forward pass and a run of twenty-five yards took the ball over the line, but the touchdown was not allowed because of holding. The half ended Lafayette, 7: Dickinson, 13. In the third period Lafayette had no difficulty in carrying the ball up the field and in sending Brown over the line, but again there was holding and the score was not permitted. In the next series of play Lafayette carried the ball over the line. Brown again doing most of the gain Lafayette

The lineup: when that affair was settled at lay's meeting. Herrmann was Lafayette. J. Diamond. Large..... Royer. Score—Lafayette, 19: Dickinson, 13. Touch-downst-Brown, 2; Pauxtis, 2; J. Diamond, Goals from folichdown-Pauxtis, Beyer, Substitutes—Lafayette—Pardee for D. Diamond, Scheerf for arayette—Pardee for D. Diamond, Scheeff for rown, Kelly for Large, Stone for Furry, Ham-ond for J. Diamond; Dickinson—Steinaker for chaeffer, Rawley for Fauxtis, Petuerbaugh for ashore, Sharpe for Steinaker, Referee—T, horpe, Cornell, Umpire—Bergen, Princeton, linesman—Cutts, Harvard, Time of periods— HOPKINS ENDS POOR SEASON.

Virginia Military Institute Administers Ninth Successive Defeat.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 28.—By losing to the Virginia Military Institute to-day Johns Hopkins closes the football season

The lineup:
Hopkins.	Positions.	V. M. I.
La Motte	.Left end	Lowry
Leibensperger	Left tackle	Youell
D. Penniman	Left guard	Guterur
Primrose	Dight guard	Reselect
Connolly	Right tackle	Clarkson
Bridgman	Right end	Richards
Tappan	Quarterback	Kingman
Branham	eft halfback.	Bain
BagleyR	ight halfback.	Lerch
G. Penniman
Kingman 2, Moore
Moore 3. Substitut
pen, Uhler for G. P.	enniman, Pen	niman for Uhler.
Hassan for Buchne	ss, Catlin for	Bagley, Hall for
Bridgman, Yost for	Knipp, Baker	f for Hall, Randall for Catiln; V. Richards for Colbu	M. I: Colbui	n for Richards, for Burass, Summ
Kingman. Referee
-Harrison, St. Joh

FUMBLES HELP LEHIGH.

Franklin and Marshall Play Loose Football at Critical Stages.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 28.—Franklin and Marshall was defeated to-day by Lehigh, the score being 29 to 0. The locals held the visitors down to three points in the first and second periods and then weakened. Lehigh was considerably heavier than its antagonist. The defeat was due entirely to fumbles at critical stages of the game. Lehigh's telling blows were administered in the third period. A goal from placement by Lehigh's quarterback and four touchdowns consti-tuted the makeup of Lehigh's score. Smith was seriously injured in a fall.

The inteup
FAM.	Positions. Left end Left tackle	Lehig
Sylves	Left end
Martman	Left tackle	Ba
Tartman	Left guard	Bla
Teske	Contro	TV.
Dieni	Centre
MacClay	Right guard
Smith	Right tackle
Glidden	Right end
Wood	Quarterback	· · · · · · Pazze
Herman	Left halfback
Jacger	Right halfback	Ke
Jones	Fuliback	Но
Score Lehle	h. 29; Franklin an	d Marshall
Touchdowns	Vylle, Hogan, Mcc	affery. Gr
Touchdowns	uchdowns-Hoban	2 Goal fr
Goals Hom to	zettle. Substitute	. Mumma
placement Pa	ezettie. Substitute	Carry for V
Smith, Shanne	r for Sykes, McCa	hely lor
Houser for Ha	ley. Seruggs for	ACKIEY, Car
weth for Pazze	ttle. Whitney for	PHCK. HIPE
for Keady, Crit	on for Hoban. Ref	eree-Gillun
University of	Pennsylvania.	Umpire-Ty